JAMES ROBERT UNDERWOOD, Assistant News Director, KRLD - TV, Dallas, states he was an occupant of car number 7 or 8 of the Presidential motorcade on November 22, 1963, along with TOM DILLARD, Dallas Morning News, Dallas, Texas; BOB JACKSON, Dallas Times Herald, Dallas, Texas; JAMES DARNELL, WBAP-TV, Fort Worth, Texas and one other person besides the driver, neither of whose names he can recall.

Mr. UNDERWOOD states the car in which he was riding was approaching the corner of Houston and Elm Streets, Dallas, Texas, when he heard a loud noise sounding similar to a gunshot. He states that upon hearing the second noise he realized it was a gunshot and that at the sound of the next shot the car in which he was riding was almost directly in front of the Texas School Book Depository Building located on Elm and Houston Streets. He stated at this time the car in which he was riding had been stopped, and he overheard BOB JACKSON of the Dallas Times Herald say "There's a rifle." Then JACKSON pointed upward toward the Texas School Book Depository Building.

Mr. UNDERWOOD states he looked toward the Texas School Book Depository Building but could see nothing resembling a rifle protruding from a window. Mr. UNDERWOOD further states at this time he left the car in which he was riding and that for sometime afterwards he was near the entrance of the Texas School Book Depository Building, but he did not notice a person resembling LEE HARVEY OSWALD come from the building.
